Taunton High School

JOURNAL

Nineteen Hundred and Forty-One

Published by the Senior Class of the Taunton High School

Dedicated

to

Miss Florence H. Stone

and the English Department

Taunton High School

We will never bring disgrace to this, our nation, by any act of dishonesty or cowardice, nor ever desert our suffering comrades in the ranks; we will fight for the ideals of the nation, both alone and with others; we will revere and respect our nation's laws, and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in those above us who are prone to annul and set them at naught; we will strive unceasingly to quicken the public's sense of civic duty; thus in all these ways, we will transmit this nation not only not less, but greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

THE ATHENIAN OATH.

The Crossroads of Life

They tell us Life is but a dream,
And now we can agree,
For every hour we've spent in school,
Is naught but memory.

Another year has slipped away,
Into the vast unknown,
Leaving us standing here beside,
Life's crossroads, quite alone.

'Tis at this point our ways do part,
And now we bid adieu,
To our countless friends and classmates,
Whose bonds have been so true;

And as we go in varied ways,
Our goal in view, no less,
Should be to reach, by word and deed,
The summit of Success.

VOL. XVII, No. 11

SEPTEMBER, 1940 . . .

As we trudged back to classes at T. H. S. after a wonderful vacation at the beach, the leaves were tumbling from the trees and there was a hint of fall in the air . . . at last we were seniors! New schedules were made out and the first week slipped by before we knew it. . . . The first week is always the best of the school year—there isn't much homework. Ah well, only one year left, anyway. . . .

OCTOBER, 1940 . . .

Candidates for the football team were chosen, with Leo Duffy as captain. Pep talks aroused school spirit—which helped Taunton High to emerge as victors in many of the games. . . . The freshmen girls were given a "get-acquainted" party by the Girls' League. . . . There was a large freshman class this fall, which meant that more freshmen would get lost in our massive building. . . . We were just getting used to getting up early by the end of October.

NOVEMBER, 1940 . . .

Taunton High won the Lions Club Trophy, defeating the stalwart Coyle team, 6-0. . . . Cadet appointments were released, David Martin being named as Major. . . . The current question was: "Who are the captains?" . . . The Student Council Convention at Plymouth, Mass., was attended by twelve delegates and representatives from Taunton. . . . "The Tauntonian" made its initial appearance. . . . Thanksgiving vacation was enjoyed by all. . . . Taunton defeated Mansfield at Hopewell Park in the annual clash. . . . The Pigskin Matinee, a dance to honor the coach and football team, was very successful, due to the untiring work of the Student Council.

DECEMBER, 1940 . . .

Christmas was "just around the corner. . . . The Football Banquet was held in the Taunton High School gymnasium. . . . Members of the varsity and the Jay Vees received sweaters, while cheerleaders received letters. . . . The first drill was held at Roseland instead of at the Armory. Reggie Stevens and his orchestra provided the music. The chief speaker of the evening was Reverend Father Edmund J. Ward, of St. Joseph's Parish. . . . The honor rolls were released for the first time. . . . Students and teachers enjoyed the Christmas vacation.

JANUARY, 1941 . . .

A new year! The usual resolutions were: "No more D's, not too many A's, I'll try to get to bed before eleven, etc. . . . Members of the Tauntonian Staff, accompanied by Mrs. E. Lillian Shaw, faculty advisor, attended the Press Conference at Northeastern University. . . . Members of the Girls' League attended a tea, sponsored by Miss Irene M. Foley. . . . Mid-year exams loomed in the distance, and before we knew it, they were upon us. . . . We bade goodbye to Miss Florence H. Stone, head of the English Department, who resigned. Mr. Ward announced that she had excused all seniors from MID-YEAR EXAMS in English—something that the Class of 1941 will never, never forget!

FEBRUARY, 1941 . . .

The February Drill was a huge success. . . . Mid-year exam papers were returned to students. . . . Remember that empty feeling while you waited for them? "Oh, why can't that teacher hurry? Suppose I get a bad mark?" Oh, the suspense! . . . Washington's birthday came and went. . . . No day off!

MARCH, 1941 . . .

Students took over the city government for one day. . . . The Girls' Sport Club had an enjoyable outing at the Brockton "Y". . . . The Tauntonian took second place in the annual contest held at Columbia University, New York City. This was the highest award that the Taunton High paper has even taken. . . . Mayor Fitzgerald died suddenly at his home on Broadway. . . . The Journal Staff, appointed by Michael J. Welch, new Head of the English Department, began to organize. . . . The Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs gave a fine performance at the Ladies' Musical Club.

APRIL, 1941 . . .

The History Club Town Meeting was presented to the student body at an assembly. . . . The April Drill was a success; Larry Cooper and his orchestra furnished music for the evening. . . . The Journal was well under way and will be released this June. Future artists of America—Ada Alegi and Donald Isaac, won recognition for their fine paintings. . . . The baseball season began. . . . Spring is in the air. . . . Senior privileges were anticipated, and the seniors stride in and out with that carefree look. . . . It was announced that fifty-one seniors will graduate with honors, seven with Magna Cum Laude.

MAY, 1941 . . .

The Prom Committee was working hard to make the dance on the twenty-third the most successful one ever enjoyed at Taunton High. Pictures were being exchanged and there were many who were heard to say, "I won't have enough. I should have ordered more". . . . Familiar sights were: Senior class advisors planning the decorations in the hall. . . . Doctor Carroll's beaming smile.

JUNE, 1941 . . .

Seniors have just begun to appreciate school. . . . Final examinations did not cause the same gloom that mid-year's had caused; at least there is hope of escaping Finals. Graduation will take place the last week in June. Then the Seniors will say, "Goodbye, T. H. S." . . . As we come to the parting of the ways, we, too, may say with Cicero: "The anticipation exceeds the actual arrival".

Class Will

We, the Class of 1941, considered by a choice few of the faculty as possessing sane minds, having succeeded in graduating at long last from this venerable and revered institution, namely Taunton High School, do hereby present this, our last Will and Testament.

To the Class of 1942, we solemnly bequeath any knowledge which we may have accumulated during four years of hard and diligent labor.

INDIVIDUAL BEQUESTS

DOROTHY ABBOTT: To anyone with an appropriate name, my place as first in the Journal.

IRENE CURRIE: To my sister Jean, '43, I bequeath my seat in 103, and my private library of Looks, Lifes, and Cosmopolitans.

RUTH HOLMAN: To some student, the honor and work of being homeroom chairman for four years.

ANN WHITE: To the Taunton High School, my brother Tom, the last of the Whites to enter its famed portals—treat him well.

RICHARD EATON: To the future pupils in 103, I bequeath a completely new "joke book".

DAVID HIGGINBOTHAM: To my sister Phyllis, my ability to do Senior Algebra to save myself from any work next year.

ETHEL JUDGE: To Lillian Simas, '42, my blushes—and she's welcome to them!

LOUISE ROUNDS and MARY MASTERSON: To any junior, the troubles of the lunchroom, especially in hearing how many checks the pupil wishes.

CHARLES HASKINS: To another disturber, my "problem" with Mr. Welch.

RUTH ERICKSON: To Rhoda McKenney, '42, I bequeath the "eternal triangles" of Gilmore Hall and the melody of "That Naughty Waltz".

DOROTHY McCARTY and MURIEL MARSDEN: To Miss Marshall, we bequeath a class of angels, like ourselves.

FRANK TUCKER: To Joyce Watson, a bicycle to bring her to school on time in the morning.

AUDREY BLISS: To Joan Conroy, '42, my back corner seat in Latin where you can wave to the ragmen without Miss Atwell's watchful eye on you.

HOWARD INMAN: To any hep-cat still interned who savvies the back beat boogie with the solid four, the penning of that dispensary of jive and jam, "A Tempo". (For translation of above—consult any Record Club member.)

ROBERTA SHINE: To whoever dares to use it, I give my ability to reach my homeroom seat every morning at exactly eight minutes past eight.

LINCOLN WILDE: To David Hillman, my permanent seat in Miss Cronin's French makeup.

DOT MILLER and KAY BOYLEN: To Nat Friedman, '42, all the fun we had in our Senior year.

JOSEPH KAMIN: To the next high school reporter, I leave the ability to be in five different places at the same time, to write library columns that will meet Miss Sheehan's standard, and to have enough wisdom to withstand the well meant, but constantly haranguing fire of criticism by both faculty and students.

VERA ZOSLOSKY: To anyone with the fitting appellation, my place as last in the Journal.

A Girl's Plea

"It was all right for him to do
Just what he did today,
To trample on our foeman's line
And hold their backs at bay,
But now that he's my escort here,
The yearly football dance—
I wish to all the gods there are
He'd give my feet a chance!"

They're in the Army Now

First Sergeant: "Stand up straight, throw your shoulders back, and button up your coat."

Married Recruit (absent minded): "Yes, dear, I'll do it right away."

George Arruda had missed the target four times . . .

Sergeant: "Where the blazes are your shots going?"

George: "I don't know, but they're leaving this end all right."

Zeke Zagrodny: "What did they do to you for hitting the sergeant?"

George Silva: "Oh they promoted me. They made me a court martial."

The Class Prophecy

AUDREY WERNER

June 8, 1951

Dear Alice:

Congratulations to you on being promoted to supervisor at Doctor Borra's General Hospital. It was nice to hear that Helen Brown and Genevieve Chisholm are your assistants, and I'm sure Ethel Morey makes a splendid masseuse.

Have you seen M-G-M's latest picture, The Fascinating Fawn, directed by Elwood Leonard, starring our own Lil Weatherbee, photography by Roland Boutin? It's a real success and the dancing of Howard Inman and Beatrice Menard certainly adds much to the picture. Speaking of Hollywood, the latest reports are that Lonnie Shumway and Paul Lucey are vying for Ty Power's throne, and that Mickey Hodgman and Sara Chudnovsky will soon see their names in lights.

A few days ago, while walking down Broadway, I met Janet Leonard who had recently acquired a new accent, along with a southern colonel and a forty-acre orange grove. She hailed me with, "Why Audré Wernah! What are yo' doin' heah, honey chile?" and, upon being informed that I modeled clothes designed by Charlotte Maule and Dot Schofield, at the 5th Avenue Gowne Shoppe, owned by Phyllis Tucker and Carolyn Gillon, she exclaimed, "The ole' high school crowd! Whatever became of Francis Paige, Ted Gazda, Marylyn Abbott, Jane Reid, and Walter Van Tuck?" Before I could answer she went on to tell me that Albert Fairbanks and Howard Fitzgerald were running The Balmy Buccaneer, Cotter and Strojny were training with the Yanks, and Duffy and Baron were with the Red Sox. Also, that she had seen Johnny Kiernan, Elaine Johnson, Florence Roscoe, and Christian Soares vacationing at Miami Beach, where Gilbert Walker and Norma Pierce were life guards. With that last bit of information, she raced off to a session with Ethel Judge and Alice Walsh, world famous beauticians.

After chatting with Janet, I was seized by a sudden yearning to visit the land of my youth, so immediately I packed a bag, hurried to La Guardia Field, and had just time to pick up a copy of Kamin's Kourier before boarding the waiting Flying Fish, a new type of plane, designed by that Wisz, Benjamin. With a drawn out sigh, I settled down to read the Kourier, thinking of days long ago when I dreamed of being a writer; but, Alice, look at the competition in that field with Professor Schwarz's Encyclopedia in everyone's bookcase, Garvin's startling It Did Happen, and Wyman's Symphonic Sonnets, acclaimed by all, this trio of books coming from the publishing house of Matteson and Hoye. "Oh!" I gasped, continuing my reading, "BROWNELL, SECOND 'FLO' ZIEGFELD, TO JUDGE BEAUTY CONTEST." Look who three of the contestants are: Eileen Doherty, Buddy Robinson, and Audrey Bliss! The paper further stated that Alton Kelsey, of The New York Times, had been trailing Hank for an interview for three days and when last seen, Brownell and Kelsey were heading for Hawaii. H-m-m! Hawaii!!! Just then the hostess appeared bearing a tray of Alice Ripley's Toothsome Tuitti Fruittis, and imagine my delight to discover she was Marilyn Weygand, who informed me that Ruth Heaney was the pilot of our plane. Glancing across the aisle, I spied Winfred Violette and Art Thomas, those two strong, silent men, who had just returned from a lecturing tour, their subject being "The Habits of a Luna Moth".

Whoops, the plane was landing; terra firma rushed to us. The East Taunton Airport was alive with people, music, and motion. Why all the excitement? And then I knew, for Senator Martin stepped from the plane, followed by his secretary, Louise Rounds. Mayor Jenkins headed the welcoming delegation, which included Councilmen Shaw, Higginbotham, Wilkins, and Hicks. At a signal given by Clem O'Neil, the leader, the twin drum majorettes, Lucia and Marcia, strutted off, and the procession was on. Such familiar faces as Bobby Noyes, Shirley Pierce, Ernie Furtado, Albert Poole, and Gilbert Wrigley passed by. Jean Williams was there to meet me, bubbling over with news of former Tauntonians: Ann White won the International Typing Contest, Jo Miga and Stella Lozinski were entering the Madison Square Six-Day Bicycle Race, and Cath Sheehan has discovered a new chemical called Argo-D'Armour, which when taken before swimming makes it impossible for the partaker to sink. Already it has saved the lives of Ruth Schlomowitz, Harold Rogers, Connie Cook, and the David boys. The firm of Tucker and Sosenko are endeavoring to manufacture the substance in large quantities and Roy Brown is handling the transaction. Jean told me, too, that Wagner and Karon were seeking the remains of Cleopatra's pony in Egypt, and that Taunton boasted the new law firm of Zagrodny, Zagrodny, and Zagrodny.

By this time, we had reached Main Street, and had driven past the Channet Art Museum, where were housed the latest works of Ada Alegi, Don Isaac, and Ed McCarthy. The adjoining building was the Owl Opera House, and the posters advertised the coming performance of Bury and Mendoza. Others in the cast included Winifred Morlock, Judith Nelson, and Connie Wood.

We reached Osenkowski's Bowling Green, which was near Ruth Jone's Riding School. Some of her customers at the moment were Rena Angenola, Ed Menard, and George Dexter.

"Jean, what's going on over there?"

"That," retorted Jean, "is Breene's Beanery, and the big attraction is Marita Eagan flipping pancakes in the window."

As we edged our way through the crowd, we were joined by Connie Ofengand and Willard Miller. Willard informed us that he had been missing some of his prize pigeons and wondered, if, in some mysterious manner, they had found their way into the pie concocted by Dot Violette, the Beanery's chief cook.

Now, it was nearly two o'clock, and after stopping to chat with Eleanor Vaillancourt, a French teacher, John Fahey, and William Wilde, we decided to lunch at the Club Catenelli, where the strains of music by Bill Hewitt, with songs by Eva Carvalho, greeted us. The head waiter, of all people, was Bob MacGlashing, and he told us that Ina Todleben is a competent dictaphone operator, that Mary Masterson and Carol Brown are secretaries, and that Adele Wasilauski has her own skating review. We ordered lamb, and this reminded Bob of the venture in which Elwin Johnson, Martha Tripp, and Warren Pillsbury are engaged. They are attempting to perfect a tailless sheep. Why? I don't know. And now, Bob exclaimed excitedly that Eileen Keogh and Roberta Hackett had obtained a patent on boneless chicken, and on pickles; said pickles being raised on the vine by watering them at midnight with a strong solution of vinegar and a secret ingredient. What an ingenious class we had!

Of course, Al, you know that Priscilla Hodges teaches physical culture, that Peg Woodward advertises Silva's Shampoo, and that Eryk Szajnar is in the Army.

Later, Jean and I met Dot Cort and Carolyn Hall, who were all enthused about George Arruda's speech in Congress the day before. Peg Ramsay and Alice Quigley arrived in time to say "Hello" and hastened away again to get the autograph of Glen Oldfield, the famous racer.

Next, we were inveigled into a long and lengthy conversation with Ruth Erickson, and by this time, I had just enough vitality left to gather that Orsine, Sanford, and Ricketson were staking a claim in the Yukon, and that Dot Whowell has been appointed hostess at Camp Champion. We had gained only twenty yards when the voices of Margaret Van Nostrand and Edith Boyd reached our ears. "Girls," they gasped, "there's going to be another hurricane! Earl DeVere has just predicted one from the Observatory!"

Hereupon, my head swooned with this collected news. Jean worriedly hailed a taxi, driven by Roland Cote, and we soon reached the haven of her home. A brief rest followed, and at nine o'clock, I boarded the train for New York. Oh, to be home again, but the Fates decreed that I was not to escape until the news should come to me that Nat Nelson is a veterinarian, and Veronica Roberts and Beatie Rylands are rising athletes. On the train, I met Frank Morton who is a salesman for the W. Biss Truck Corporation. Walter evidently is astounding the auto industry with his new ideas in this line. Ralph Cotter came dancing down the aisle to join the group, and told us that Kay Dwyer had just returned from China where she interviewed Chung-Ki-Li, war lord. While there, she met Ruth Gilson, Marcella Lang, Herbert Talbot, and George Stuart, who are, of all things, missionaries.

The train was nearing good old New York. The station swarmed with humanity and it was but natural that of the thousands collected there, I should see four former Tauntonites—Teddy Dykas, Marjorie Eames, Ruth Magbery, and Warren Padelford.

Home certainly looked wonderful, and a tired girl sank happily into bed. That night my dreams went from prancing horses to crazy inventions, intermingled with scenes of Taunton High and striped candy shops. All night long, G. Gomes zoomed along in a truck, Jose Delgado recited history continually, and Albina Floor and Juliette Boisvert sang "O Lovely May". Twisting and turning, my confused mind was faced with the appearance of a long line of dancers, apparently in the midst of the LaConga. This included such notables as Arthur Crosby, Irene Currie, and Ed Hobday. At last the dream ended; day arrived, and with it a resolve to write you this interesting (?) letter.

It was nice visiting Taunton again, and hearing about all my old classmates. I hope that you have derived even a small amount of the fun I have had telling about that never-to-be-forgotten school with that never-to-be-forgotten class of 1941. And now . . .

Love,

Audrey

How these past four years have flown! The minutes have ticked off into hours, the hours to days, the days to weeks and the weeks to years . . . and as we go on, even the years change into slowly fading memories.

But none of us will ever forget the athletic contests that once were alive with the thrill of a forward pass flying through the chilly autumn air, the joyous outbursts as an Orange and Black player scored a breathtaking basket from the corner or the tense excitement with the bases loaded and one run needed to tie up the ball game.

In this brief kaleidoscopic review of Taunton High School athletics during the past year, your Journal will not attempt to do the impossible and fully describe each game but instead will briefly review the season.

SIX WINS IN FOOTBALL

Taunton High's 1940 football season was one of the most successful in recent years, as the Orange and Black swept to six victories out of nine games, losing two contests and tying another. The season was marked by the inauguration of floodlight games for Taunton High teams, the footballers playing two games under foreign arcs.

A Jack Wakefield to Ted Strojny touchdown pass in the closing seconds of the second period carried the team to a 7 to 0 victory over Fairhaven in the season's opener. A 30-yard touchdown march and a blocked kick by Freddie Cornaglia were all that Taunton needed to astound the Eastern Massachusetts schoolboy football followers, as New Bedford Vocational went down in defeat, 8 to 0.

The first disappointment of the year came when North Attleboro and Taunton locked horns in a scoreless clash; and then the first setback at the hands of Durfee High in a 6 to 0 game plunged the Orange and Black's followers deep into the depths of despair. Durfee's victory came as the result of a recovered fumble on the five-yard line.

Taunton Tops Coyle

Striking with full force in the next to last minute of play, Taunton High's eleven made 50 yards in three plays to score a touchdown and register its first victory in five years over its intra-city rival, the Monsignor Coyle High School team, before a crowd of 4,000 partisan football fans at Fr. Woodley field. Ted Strojny celebrated his debut in the Orange and Black backfield by heaving a sensational 55-yard forward pass that was caught in the end zone by Cornaglia and provided the only scoring of the afternoon.

After scoring late in the first period, Taunton was never headed in its game with Attleboro High as Coach Anthony "Red" Matal's charges unleashed a powerful running attack to down a tricky Attleboro team, 20 to 12. Ralph Cotter was the spearhead of the Taunton win. Bewildered by Norwood High's "razzle-dazzle" playing Taunton dropped a hard-fought 12 to 0 decision to the visiting team as the Orange and Black renewed athletic relations with an old opponent.

Two Victories Close Season

Two clean-cut triumphs brought the season to a smashing close. Inaugurating athletic relations with a strong Worcester South eleven, Taunton handed them their worst walloping in many years. Alvarin DeSouza led the home forces to an overwhelming 21 to 0 victory. Ernie Furtado intercepted a forward pass and ran more than 90 yards for the most thrilling touchdown of the year.

Playing on a gridiron covered with ice and snow, Taunton scored a 9 to 0 win over its traditional Thanksgiving Day opponent, Mansfield. The following players were in action during the contest: Fred Cornaglia, Leonard Pratt, Larry Martin, Jose Delgado, Captain Leo Duffy, Adolph Linek, Eddie Mader, Mike Tanes, Jack Wakefield, Alvarin DeSouza, Jimmy Rusconi, Al Orsine, Erney Furtado, Italo Bernacchio, Ted Strojny, and Ralph Cotter.

NINE BASKETBALL WINS

The record books reveal that Taunton won nine basketball games while dropping six. Attleboro and Brockton were the only two teams that the Orange and Black were unable to defeat at least once during the season.

Parade Joseph Kamin

After losing a heart-breaking 25 to 23 game to Attleboro in the team's initial start, Taunton came back to soundly whip an Alumni team by the score of 45 to 32. Sinking an unusually large number of successful long shots, Brockton won by a 38 to 34 count in the next game.

Connecting with four field goals and four foul conversions, Captain Ted Strojny led Taunton to a decisive 33 to 22 victory over Durfee High. Taunton's defense looked good, with Jack Wakefield and Al Medas doing a fine job of controlling the backboards.

Coyle Defeated

A Taunton High athletic team once again took the measure of a Coyle squad as the Taunton basketballers proved to be too good for the Coylesters in their first of two scheduled meetings during the season. The Taunton squad won to the tune of 30 to 22 with Kozach and Wakefield doing the brunt of the scoring.

Attleboro once again trimmed the Orange and Black, this time by a 46 to 29 score in a fast game. Taunton High dropped its fourth game of the year when Mansfield pulled a surprise win out of the bag and defeated the Matal men by the score of 29 to 26.

Four Straight Victories

Taunton went on a winning streak at this stage of the campaign and proceeded to hang up four consecutive triumphs over four different opponents. Middleboro was the first victim, losing to the Orange and Black by a 38 to 31 score. Paul McCormack played a good game for Taunton, taking the high scoring honors with a total of 12 points.

Piling up the highest point total a Taunton High sports machine had ever scored under the leadership of "Red" Matal, a helpless Fairhaven quintet was smothered by the score of 53 to 30. Ted Strojny had 19 points.

Taunton made up for a previous loss to the Mansfield team and emerged as the victors in a 47 to 28 game. Tony Kozach was high man with 17 points. Durfee was again set back, this time by a 36 to 28 score in a game which the Taunton squad won by virtue of a thrilling last-period rally. Forced to play without the services of Jack Wakefield, the Matal club dropped another game to Brockton, 36 to 25.

Coyle Beaten Again

Taunton gained its third athletic victory of the 1940-41 school season over Coyle High when it again defeated the Warriors in basketball. The Coyle squad put up a better fight than in the first game and as a result Taunton was hard pressed to add the victory to its record. Wakefield's 11 points were high as Taunton won, 28 to 23.

Taunton closed the regular season with a 49 to 21 victory over Fairhaven. Players participating in the "slaughter" included Tony Kozach, Jack Heber, Paul McCormack, Ted Strojny, Jack Wakefield, Jack Kieran, Al Medas, and Bob Childs.

Post-Season Loss to Coyle

Fate brought Taunton and Coyle together for the third time in the basketball season when the two schools opposed each other in the second round of the Southeastern Massachusetts Headmasters' basketball tournament at the Bristol Aggie gym. Using a tight defense and slowly-breaking offense, Coyle tied the Orange and Black up and came through with a 23 to 16 win.

BASEBALL SEASON

With a line-up composed for the most part of junior players, Taunton started the 1941 baseball season with high hopes. Faculty Athletic Manager John H. Cronan announced a home-and-home schedule with the following teams: Durfee, Attleboro, Coyle, Fairhaven, Brockton, Bridgewater, and Mansfield.

GOLF

Taunton became a member of the Southeastern Massachusetts Scholastic Golf League during the 1941 season and participated in the regular league schedule.

THE FUTURE

We graduating students are unable to foretell what the future may hold in store for Taunton High's athletic teams. But of one thing we are certain—the Taunton squads will always play the game fairly. We can only hope that the school is entering a glorious era in its already famous athletic history.

A special four-year curriculum in Law and Business Management leading to the Bachelor of Commercial Science degree with appropriate specification is also offered. Shorter programs may be arranged. Co-educational.

Evening Courses of the College of Liberal Arts

Certain courses of the College of Liberal Arts are offered during evening hours affording concentration in Economics, English, History and Government or Social Science. A special program preparing for admission to the School of Law is also available. The program is equivalent in hours to one-half the requirement for the A.B. or S.B. degree. Associate in Arts title conferred. Co-educational.

Co-operative Plan

The College of Liberal Arts, Engineering and Business Administration offer day programs for men only, and are conducted on the co-operative plan. After the freshman year, students may alternate their periods of study with periods of work in the employ of business or industrial concerns at ten-week intervals. Under this plan they gain valuable experience and earn part of their college expenses.
